10 YEAR OLD MUSICIANS FROM UK & USA COLLABORATE INTERNATIONALLY TO COVER ROCK CLASSIC

London guitarist Lucy Gowen and Colorado singer-songwriter Emma Marie are set to release their video cover of Guns n Roses' Sweet Child O Mine on YouTube on Sat 13th February 2016.

Recorded between May and July 2015, when Emma and Lucy were 10 years old, Sweet Child O Mine is their first recording collaboration through Colorado based mentoring site RAMP www.ramp.guru.

After interviewing her for KRFC Radio in Fort Collins Co, Vincent Burkardt at RAMP introduced Lucy to 10 year old Colorado singer-songwriter Emma Marie.

Using social media and with support from RAMP, their families and music teachers, at a distance of 5,000 miles and despite never having met or performed together, the two musicians recorded and produced their cover of Guns n Roses' classic hit from the 1987 album 'Appetite for Destruction.'

Emma and Lucy have already recorded a follow up cover project as a collaboration, for filming and release later in 2016.
